Dale Gann, Manager, Business
Development & Marketing, Vancouver Island
Technology Park

"Metamend is an excellent example of a business which demonstrates continuous, ongoing, innovation and business excellence. Not only did the company start off by building innovative technology to replace routine website management functions with automated technology, but it has had to continually innovate to keep pace with evolving search engine algorithms, not just for one search engine, but for all the search engines. Throughout my time dealing with the company, I have witnessed superior customer service, and an outstanding commitment to quality and service. They don't just innovate their own technology; they also keep track of changes in dozens of search engines to ensure that the innovations of others are accounted for in their processes."
